

3-B League Gathers 469 Boys

Bedford's well organized 3-B League will boast of at least 469 boys this year from the ages of 9 to 15. They will form three divisions; farm clubs age 9; minors ages of 10-11-12; junior ages 13-14-15. League play will open June 1 with 32 teams participating and go through to the middle of August. Games will be played on 16 fields in the area nightly Monday thru Friday.

Martin Hammerstein is president this year; Dr. Daniel Soda, vice-president; Bob Fultz, sec./treas. Commissioners are:

Leo Bofia, Art Maschke, Arnold Sherer, Walt Bielski, Bill Winson and Philip Crary who replaced his deceased father Norm.
