Rainer Constantin Olligschlager, age 56, was surrounded by his family when he passed away in his sleep on July 18, 2003, at the U of M Hospital in Ann Arbor, MI. He was born November 26, 1946, in Liblar, Germany to Constantin and Gertrud (Thomas) Olligschlager. He came to America in 1951.

After graduating from Bedford High School in 1964, he joined the Air Force and served 13 years as a Sgt. through 2 tours of duty in Vietnam. He married Kathleen Lewis August 4, 1968, and settled in Howell, MI in 1975, where they raised 9 children. Rainer worked for Toyota Technical Center in Ann Arbor, MI.

He left behind his wife, Kathleen, of 35 years; parents, Constantin and Gertrud; a brother, Hans (Ann); sister, Karen; aunt and uncle, Karl and Lisa Kortgoede; 6 daughters, Heather (George) Krenk, Kristina (Jeff) Gibbons, Danielle, Tara (Shane) Truss, Angelle and Cassara; 3 sons, Hans (Kelly), David and Adam; 7 grandchildren, Arianna, Carollyn, Aidon, George, Gunnar, Myya and Logan and many loving relatives and friends.

Services will be held in Howell, MI on Wednesday, July 23rd at 11 a.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

My life's been full,
I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a
Loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time
seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now
with undo grief.
Lift up your heart
and share with me
God wanted me now.
He set me Free..

Surrounded in the hospital by loving family, they all said that "Coni" always had a smile for you.
