

Bedford Township needs a unified board to make progress

It's as predictable as the morning sunrise and as frustrating as a flat tire. The audiences at Bedford Township Board meetings continue to suffer the all-too-frequent fate of the infamous 5-2 vote.

Over and over again there were countless issues that could have had a positive effect on the community; they also would suffer the 5-2 "no" vote.

Inversely, an agenda-laden issue supported by the good ole boys would get a 5-2 yes vote.

It is very clear whose votes echo the voice of the taxpayer and residents. Equally as clear are the voices that represent the good ole boys.

Our gratitude to those cast-

Letters are welcome
Letters on public interest are welcome. Full name, address and telephone number are required. Anonymous letters and those without verifiable names will not be published. Letters are limited to 400 words. The e-mail address is letters@monroenews.com.

ers of the "two votes," Trustees Nancy Tieniveri and Paul Pirrone. It can only equate to jumping out of a plane without a parachute. To face this opposition at virtually every township meeting takes backbone, dedication and a true "for the good of the people" commitment.

They need to hold the course. Change is coming this November. We voters know it's time for "new eyes with no ties." It's time for a unified voice of seven. We look forward to cooperation and vision from this new board, giving Bedford the opportunity to build a better, vibrant community.

Finally, we look forward to the board addressing the issues of drugs, crime, stagnant business growth, public transportation, credibility and the way-overdue respect for each other.

Diana Janney
Lambertville