

RETIREES HONORED

Bedford Public Schools honored 33 people who will retire from the district at the end of the school year.

The retirees were honored during a special celebration June 3 before the regular board of education meeting.

Debby Kuhl, assistant superintendent of instruction and student services, was recognized by Supt. Ted Magrum.

Patsy Jacobs from the Bedford Senior Citizens Center was recognized by Pam Rybka, director of the center.

Scott Stalker, principal of Bedford High School, honored retirees Robert Bishop, Kathryn Jewell-Quigley, Cathy Long, Michael Murphy, Sue Poole, Judy Van Rens and athletic director Bill Regnier.

Dennis Hubbard, Sue Hubbard, Edward Bankowski, Jude Downing, Peggy Nowak and Franz Koch were honored by Mary Zaums, principal at Bedford Junior High School.

Elementary teachers who were honored are Mary Aring and Norma Steigel, Jackman Road; Beverly VanBrandt, Monroe Road, and Barbara Harris, Smith Road.

Marilyn Burkholder, Kay Donbrock, JaeAnn Johnson, Marge Meissner, Mary Diann Miller, Paula Prebula, Kathy Schrader, Paul Shaffer, Susan Shaffer and Darlene Walker were honored for their services to the transportation department.

Additional retirees include Elaine Tucker, secretary; Charlotte Brooks and Gayle Harpel, food service, and Barbara DeBruyne, paraprofessional.