Bedford Watch has narrow interests

I feel it is time for Bedford Watch to make a full disclosure.

First, here is mine. My wife, Debbie, was a member of the last township Planning Commission. I have observed Bedford Watch trying to manipulate the township with referendums, zoning request changes, etc.

Bedford Watch should be renamed to Indian Acres Watch, because this is their real, sole, interest.

Where were they when the Kroger Plaza was being planned, right by a subdivision? Where were they for the single family home that now sits next to the Taco Bell? Nowhere. Why? Because it had no bearing on Indian Acres.

Bedford Watch's most recent attempt to have all commercial zoning restricted, which would have made most of Bedford Townships businesses non-compliant, was just their attempt to protect Indian Acres from the dreaded "big box" store. Their interest is selfish, the rest of Bedford Township be damned. I hope they own up to their real agenda someday; the rest of us have figured it out.
