

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR83-year-old backs Walt Wilburn for supervisor

I have lived in Bedford Township for almost 83 years. I have seen politicians come and go, some good and some bad. We have a current township supervisor who is a true gentleman and his name is Walt Wilburn. The care and compassion that Walt shows to the Bedford citizens is second to none. Take the politics out of it and watch Walt as he is speaking at a cancer walk on a cold fall morning or helping with tents in the summer heat at Relay for Life.

Listen to Walt when he answers the phone when everyday citizens call in for help, when oftentimes the township hall is the last place they can turn. I have observed Walt as he interacts with children at the Bedford Trade Fair. Not only was he answering their questions, but taking time to answer their questions.

In the fast-paced world that we live in, Walt's giving of his own time is a quality that you do not see anymore and one that I do not want us to lose. In conclusion, I think Walt Wilburn has every Bedford citizen's best interest in mind and he is my choice as a write-in for Bedford Township supervisor on Nov. 6.
