The Bedford High School Alumni Association will induct seven athletes into its Hall of Fame in February.

The induction banquet will take place at 6 p.m. Feb. 28 at Bedford High School, 8285 Jackman Rd.

The inductees will be introduced at half time the night before during the girls' basketball game with Saline.

This year's inductees are Joe Caruso, Mary Linzie, Kellie Nowak, Kevin Vogel, Michelle (Andrews) King, Terry Banks and Jennifer (Bringman) West.

Tickets to the banquet are $25 each and may be purchased through the Bedford High School office or by mail, with checks made payable to the Bedford High School Alumni Association, to Lisa Packard, Bedford High School, 8285 Jackman Rd., Temperance, MI 48182.

The last day to purchase tickets that will guarantee a meal is Feb. 25. For more information about tickets, call Ms. Pickard at 850-6105.

Again this year, the alumni association will offer sponsorship and advertising opportunities for local businesses and individuals. Sponsorship is $200 and donors will be recognized in the Hall of Fame program and will receive an 8-inch-square brick, which identifies the donor as a sponsor. The bricks will be placed permanently in the Alumni Plaza adjacent to the Victory Bell at the Bedford Community Stadium.

Additional information about the Hall of Fame and the alumni association can be found at the Web site www.bedford.k12.mi.us/alumni_assoc.html.

TERRY BANKS (posthumous)

Terry Banks, a 1979 graduate, was nominated for the Hall of Fame by Edd Bankowski, one of his former teachers.

He was a three-year starter on the varsity basketball team, serving as co-captain in 1979. That same year, Mr. Banks led Monroe County with a 19.9 points per game average. He was named to the GLL first team and the All-Monroe County basketball team.

Mr. Banks ran track his freshman and senior years, setting a school record in the 330-meter low hurdles.

During his senior year, in football, Mr. Banks led Monroe County in pass receiving with 32 catches, 595 yards and seven touchdowns. In 1978-1979, Mr. Banks was selected to the All-GLL first team, the All-Monroe County team, and the Michigan All-State second team. He set records for the longest kickoff return, 98 yards, and most receptions in a season, 32.

Mr. Banks received a football scholarship to Wayne State University, but was killed in an automobile accident shortly after high school graduation.

in track for the 2-mile event in 1970. In 1971, he was the International Freedom Festival 10-mile champion in the junior division. Mr. Caruso still holds Bedford's 2-mile, or 3,200 meter, record of 9:18, set in 1971. He ran the fastest 10,000 meters — 31 minutes, 5 seconds — among high school athletes in 1972. Mr. Caruso was All-State in cross country his senior year.

After high school, Mr. Caruso ran cross country at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti on a full-athletic scholarship. In 1976, he was the Mid-American Conference cross country champion and also became an All-American in that sport in the same year.

His love for running continued after college, and placed first in many events in the Toledo area. In 2002, Mr. Caruso ran the fastest 10,000 meters in the United States in the 45-49 age category.

In 1991, Mr. Caruso returned to BHS as a teacher; he teaches drafting and design technology.

"I came back to Bedford where my life started, to teach and make a difference in the lives of young people in the same way Bedford made a difference in my life," Mr. Caruso said.

Along with his wife, Susan, Mr. Caruso has two children, Tiffany and Marshall.
