Metro Parks

Wildwood Preserve. The stunning Georgian Colonial style mansion at Wildwood Preserve stands as one of Toledo's architectural icons. Enjoy free guided tours every Sunday at this 32,000 square foot Depression era home and learn about the region's rich history. Be sure to plan some extra time to visit the Frank Stranahan exhibit and walk the estate formerly called Stranleigh. No reservations required.

Secor. Autumn Adventure Click With Nature. Oct.5. 12:00 PM Bring your camera and snap some great fall pictures on a photography walk along the trail. Be the first to explore the renovated Secor facilities from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. or tour the Oak Openings corridor and paddle at Eber Road Day Use Area.

Pearson Black Swamp Festival. Oct. 5. 1:00 pm. Celebrate the best season of the year with family activities, an Autumn Adventure walk, music, activities at the Johlin Cabin, and food. This afternoon of fun, food and frolicking will certainly put you in the mood for the evening's Ghosts of the Great Black Swamp experience, so don't forget to register the whole family.

Pearson. Ghosts of the Great Black Swamp. Oct 5. 7:30 PM Our Black Swamp heritage springs to life when the ghosts' of settlers from northwest Ohio returned to the Johlin Cabin. Characters will recount the riveting hardships they faced living in the untamed swamp. During this engaging experience that weaves history with theatre, the audience will be invited to help these poor ghosts discover the culprit who brought them to such a state. You never know who or what will emerge from the shadows of the Great Black Swamp on this lantern-lit evening experience. This is a family-friendly experience, but please bring a blanket or lawn chair and dress warm because the autumn air will not be the only thing giving one chills.

Side Cut Park. Side Cut Explorer Oct. 5. 1:00 pm. Travel along the banks of the Maumee River and down the canal towpath. A naturalist highlights the scenery, as passengers relax in Metroparks wheelchair accessible, open-air trolley. Program runs every Tuesday, June through October.

Wildwood Preserve Historical Tours of Stranleigh. Oct 7, 8, 9. 12:00 PM The stunning Georgian Colonial style mansion at Wildwood Preserve stands as one of Toledo's architectural icons. Enjoy free guided tours every Sunday at this 32,000 square foot Depression era home and learn about the region's rich history. Be sure to plan some extra time to visit the Frank Stranahan exhibit and walk the estate formerly called Stranleigh. No reservations required.

Secor Metropark.. Under The Moon 5K Run/Walk. Oct 7. 6:00 pm Join the Metroparks, the Toledo Roadrunners Club and Dave's Running Shop for a special event under the light of the moon. Run against the clock or enjoy a walk on the 3.1 mile trail course. Special lighting will help guide the way, but flashlights and headlamps are suggested. This is a fun event for all; there will be no official timing or scoring so go at your own pace. Along with a great Autumn run/walk under the moon, enjoy roaring fire pits, apple cider, s'mores, music and learn from Metroparks Naturalist "What sings in the night?"

Off site. Fallen Timbers Battlefield Preservation Commission: Annual Meeting. Oct 7. 7:00 pm. 220 years ago, military and Native American forces clashed at the Battle of Fallen Timbers. Joint board members at the annual meeting as the Commission wraps up an eventful year of anniversary events. Following a brief meeting and election of officers, listen to a speech from the National Parks Service staff person. For additional information, email President Dave Westrick at evadwest@buckeye-express.com.

Blue Creek Conservation Area. Star Struck: Total Lunar Eclipse. Oct. 8. 5:15 pm. Enjoy a breathtaking view of a total lunar eclipse away from the light pollution of the big city. Try out our telescope, learn from a naturalist about the science behind a lunar eclipse, and enjoy some lunar lore and hot coffee while watching this extraordinary event. Coffee will be provided.

Sidecut. Friends of Side Cut: Full Moon Owl Walk. Oct 8. 7:00 pm. Set off down the towpath with a Metroparks Naturalist who will try to 'call in' screech owls. Call 419-897-8663 for program reservations.

Oak Openings Preserve. Full Moon Geocaching. Oct. 8. 7:00 pm. Enjoy a night of fun geocaching and discovering the Oak Openings after dark by the light of the full moon. Dress warm and bring your own GPS unit and flashlight. A small number of GPS units are available to borrow. Please contact Tammy Saunders at 419-779-2616 to reserve a unit. Register each participant over three years old.

Providence. Fall Photo Shoot. Oct. 9 & 10. 5:30 pm. Third and fourth. in a series of ten photo shoots in various Metroparks at various times to celebrate the best time of year in your Metroparks. Led by the Photo Center's Art Weber and naturalist/photographer Bob Jacksy these shoots are wonderful opportunities for exploration and instruction. Providence Metropark commands a great spot on a very scenic section of the Maumee River including a wonderful rapids below the Providence Dam that is often loaded with herons and other water birds.

Secor. Field Study for Adults: Fruits of Fall. Oct. 9. 6:00 pm. Attend one or all of these outdoor field excursions featuring seasonal topics at opportune sites: Common berries, nuts and seeds will be the feature of this walk from light into darkness. We will call barred owls on our return!

Pearson. Preschool Pioneers (Ages 3-5) : Scrap of Warmth. Oct. 10. 10:00 am. Bring your 3 to 5 year old to the little cabin in the big swamp to learn one of history's fun activities. Register child only. Parent must accompany their child at program. Today "pioneers" discover the importance of the quilt to pioneers families. Children hear a story and learn the four basic shapes used to create them: circle, square, rectangle, and triangle. Children will get to "piece" their own quilt square with the four basic shapes.

Sidecut. Birders of a Feather. Oct. 11. 8:00 AM. Become part of a bird watching flock. The group meets at different parks each month to share the enjoyment of birding. First-timers and experienced birders love these monthly avian explorations. Bring binoculars and field guides.

Oak Opening Preserve. Overnight Backpacking Adventure. Oct. 11. 9:00 am. Enjoy the unique scenery of the Oak Openings Preserve and discover one of the hidden gems of northwest Ohio on this naturalist-led 15.5 mile overnight backpacking experience. Participants will explore nearly every habitat encompassed in this massive 3700 plus acre park while learning valuable backpacking and camping skills. No backpacking experience necessary. Participants must be 16 or older; all minors must be accompanied by a legal guardian. All meals provided. Limited equipment available to borrow. A pre-trip meeting will be held on the evening of Friday, October 3rd to check gear, talk about the trip and answer any questions.
