Hope a great crowd can make it. Hard to believe it's been 50 years as it seems like yesterday.

5/29/2012 5:32 AM

What is the cost of the reunion?

5/28/2012 4:37 PM

Thank you, Duane.

5/26/2012 11:26 AM

Would like to attend more 50th reunion events but if I'm still working, work schedule may prevent this.

5/26/2012 8:34 AM

I will assist in any help you may need. I am good with a computer. Also perhaps a booklet with pictures from past reunions could be put together as the Talisman along with however you handle updated information. Lastly is it cheaper to print a booklet that is two sided instead of one sided although a better quality of paper needs to be used to stop bleedthrough from the other side of the page.

5/17/2012 12:23 AM

Thanks for all the time you are putting in organizing. Would Miss G have inserted a comma after "in"?

5/15/2012 6:52 PM

Thanks for starting to plan for the 50th reunion.

5/14/2012 5:23 PM

You guys are doing a good job

5/13/2012 8:30 AM

It might work to charge attendees for their dinner and have a cash bar- that way the people attending can pick where we would like to go. I think the Oaks is too small to be able to move around- unless the seating could be rearranged. It isn't the food that is so important- it's connecting with people from the past- You could even do an afternoon gathering with hors d'oeuvres (or however you spell it)- say on Friday and a dinner on Saturday- pay your own way- or even a pot luck somewhere. If money is going to be donated- it should be donated with the understanding that the committee is in charge of making the plans after receiving feedback from the alumni.
