

Bedford High School's Hall of Fame Banquet set for Oct. 26

The Bedford High School Alumni Association Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and Banquet will take place on Friday, Oct. 26, at Memories Banquet Hall, located at 7332 Lewis Ave., in Temperance.

This is the second year for the event which has become popular, according to Chuck Faller, president of the Bedford Alumni Association.

"All of the inductees have added to the success of Bedford either through sports, academics or through their volunteer work for the schools," Faller said.

This year's inductees were introduced to those in attendance at Bedford's Homecoming football game, held Oct. 5.

The 2001-2002 Hall of Fame inductees being honored this year are:

• Etta Mae Chapman has spent 42 with the Bedford Public Schools. She has been a teacher, former Bedford Education Association President, NCA Chairman, and Assistant Athletic Director.

• Art Maschke is a 40 year veteran of the Bedford Public Schools and has served as a teacher, coach, principal and personnel director.

• Chris McMacken is being given the award posthumously. He was a 1967 graduate of Bedford High School and was class salutatorian, and football quarterback. McMacken spent his life as a nuclear engineer, was a career naval officer and a nuclear submarine captain. He rose to be Dean of the Naval War College. McMacken passed away in 1997.

• Karen Sapp-Crowe is a 1983 Bedford High School graduate and was named outstanding female athlete, participating in track, volleyball, and basketball. Karen was the 1983 girls regional track and field athlete of the year, and was all-state in track and volleyball.

• Jennifer Shrader-Williams is a 1991 Bedford High School graduate. She was a member of the Drama Club, Choir, Soiree, National Honor Society, and is a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music. She is now a featured performer on Broadway, currently appearing in Disney's Beauty and the Beast.

Tickets for the event are $30 per person and include dinner and drinks. They may be purchased until Saturday, Oct. 20, at the Bedford Public Schools Administration Building, located at 1623 West Sterns Road, in Temperance, or by calling Chuck Faller at (734) 847-8339.

The doors open at 6:30 p.m., with dinner being served at 7 p.m. The ceremonies will begin at 8 p.m.
